Gentlemen:

In compliance with the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, the United States Navy has conducted an Initial Assessment Study (IAS) on Navy property within Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands, to identify and assess sites posing a potential threat to human health or to the environment due to contamination from past hazardous materials operations. The study is contained in three volumes which are enclosed herewith for your information.

Copies of these reports are being provided to the Caribbean Office, Environmental Protection Agency, San Juan.

For additional information please call the office of my Staff Civil Engineer, at telephone 865-2000, extensions 4204 or 4083.

Sincerely,

J. F. DONAHOE
