Section 1 INTRODUCTION

This document describes the comprehensive community relations program that will be conducted throughout the investigation and environmental cleanup activities at the U.S. Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) located in El Toro, California. This Community Relations Plan is being prepared in support of the MCAS Installation Restoration Program (IRP). The IRP was developed in 1980 by the Department of Defense (DoD) to comply with federal guidelines to manage and control past hazardous waste disposal actions (U.S. Department of the Navy [DON] 1992). The purpose of the Community Relations Plan is to identify concerns the community may have regarding the cleanup efforts, to determine the best communication methods for the local community, and to enhance two-way communication between the Marine Corps/Navy and the community.

The Marine Corps/Navy is the lead agency responsible for implementing the community relations program detailed in this plan. The U. S. Environmental Protection Agency (U.S. EPA) is the lead regulatory agency that will provide guidance and oversight for this program. The Community Relations Plan was developed in accordance with federal requirements outlined in the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (NCP) and in U.S. EPA's Community Relations in Superfund: A Handbook (U.S. EPA 1992). Appendix A details all regulatory background and requirements.
