What is Community Partnering?

The Navy is committed to using local vendors when possible as part of the environmental cleanup program at Hunters Point Shipyard (HPS). Local vendors are businesses located in the HPS community, defined as ZIP codes 94107, 94124, and 94134. Depending on the contract, local vendors may be chosen for projects based on best value, services they offer, or past experience on similar projects. The Navy also has a preference to use small businesses whenever possible. In 2010, over $14 million dollars were contracted to local vendors. The pie charts below show the percentage of dollars given to local vendors and the total dollar amounts. In addition to hiring local vendors, some local residents were hired directly to work on Navy projects in 2010. Navy Contractors spent approximately $780,000 on local labor in 2010.

What types of local vendors do Navy contractors use?

- Construction services
- Waste removal
