

ley Athletic League title, but Bellarmine captured CCS glory.

In 2006, Homestead suffered a heartbreaking loss in the quarterfinals, as Los Gatos upset Bellarmine and eventually snatched the CCS championship with a triumph over Sacred Heart Cathedral.

But in 2007, the stars look aligned for Homestead, considering it compiled an overall record of 34-3 and captured the SCVAL crown with an unblemished record for the second straight season.

With the bulk of the team intact, setter Ryan Bridge runs the show for the Mustangs, while senior outside hitter Weston Buckner fuels the offense with kills and middle blocker Ryan Dedrick defends the net.

Homestead begins its quest at redemption Thursday, hosting No. 16 Harker at 7 p.m. in the first round.

"We have seen them a few times," Homestead head coach Matt Hoffman said. "They have a big hitter, but I think we match up well."

Should the Mustangs win their first match, Homestead would face either No. 8 Leigh or No. 9 San Lorenzo Valley in the second round. Both are familiar foes.

"Yeah, we have played them," Hoffman said. "We beat both Leigh and SRV in tournaments. ... We have either seen every team or played them."

Homestead did suffer losses to No. 3 Bellarmine and No. 2 Mt. Madonna.

"Bellarmine can be pretty tough," Hoffman said. "And Mt.

are both on the other side of the bracket."

But two top five teams did grab spots on Homestead's side of the bracket.

St. Francis and Mountain View, ranked No. 4 and No. 5, feature players capable of upsetting the No. 1 seed.

"St. Francis and Mountain View ... that will be a really good quarterfinal match," said Hoffman, who coached the Gunn girls last fall. "Well, that's if they win their first game."

Mountain View opens against defending CCS champion Los Gatos at home. The Wildcats, who lost all of their starters with last year's graduating class, sometimes play as many as five sophomores on the floor, while former head coach Scott Peterson departed for his alma mater, Bellarmine Still, Los Gatos always plays tough against Mountain View and even managed to prevail once.

"It's going to be a battle," first-year Los Gatos head coach
