One win improved Alta Vista to 5-4 in the South Bay Big Six; Robertson sunk to 2-7.

The Aztecs close the regular season at 11 a.m., Thursday, entertaining first-place Peninsula (6-1) at Cubberley Community Center in Palo Alto.

The following Thursday, Alta Vista hosts the league tournament, featuring the top four teams. Adams expects his squad to earn the third seed in the tourney, set to start at 10 a.m., which means the Aztecs would have to win back-to-back games that day to capture the league title.

"Our goal coming into (last Thursday's) game was to win four games in a row," he said. "Now it's down to three, and I think we're capable of doing it."
