

Naval Weapons Station (NWS) Yorktown
Restoration Advisory Board
Community Member Application

Background: The Naval Weapons Station (NWS) Yorktown Restoration Advisory Board (RAB) is a forum for the discussion and exchange of environmental cleanup information between the Navy, state, and federal regulatory agencies and the local community. It provides an opportunity for community members to review progress and provide advice and opinions to decision-makers on the NWS Yorktown Environmental Restoration Program.

The NWS Yorktown RAB is a volunteer organization which was established in 1994 and currently meets annually. RAB meetings are open to the public, and last approximately 1.5 hours depending on agenda items. To remain engaged, RAB members will need to devote additional time throughout the year to review and comment on official work plans and environmental investigation reports.

Primary Responsibilities of RAB Members:

- Attend regularly scheduled RAB meetings
- Review and comment on environmental cleanup plans and documents
- Share information with other local community members and groups interested in specific cleanup issues

NWS Yorktown RAB community members must reside, own property, or represent an organization located within 10 miles of NWS Yorktown. The Navy is currently accepting applications for new RAB members. If you meet the residency/ involvement requirements and are interested in being considered for NWS Yorktown RAB membership, please complete and mail this application to:

Naval Facilities Engineering Systems Command Mid-Atlantic
ATTN: Melvin Acree
