

Fire on restricted area- Feb 12, 2011

- Fire was reported to Agencies (FWS, EPA) on Saturday, 12 Feb 2011
  - Fire may have started around 3 PM based on calls received

- Navy Munitions Removal Contractors
  - Do not work on weekends
  - Have not been assigned this area as a work area.
  - Currently working on beaches of North (Playa Campaña, Playa Puerto Negro, Playa Matías, and center grids of EMA/SIA).

- Navy contractor did not enter area until Monday to investigate
  - A joint inspection by FWS, EPA, and Navy occurred on Tuesday after locating burned area and determination of relatively safe conditions
  - Estimated burned area is approximately 160 acres

- Area was investigated last year to determine present / types of munitions
  - Only few items were found
  - Area is to the south and east of small arms ranges in Eastern Maneuver Area (EMA)

