The screenshot shows the SAM.gov homepage. At the top right, there is a 'Sign In' button. The main navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Search', 'Data Bank', 'Data Services', and 'Help'. The SAM.gov logo is prominently displayed. A banner on the right states 'Official U.S. Government Website 100% Free'. The central content area is divided into two main sections. The left section, titled 'The Official U.S. Government System for:', lists various services: Contract Opportunities (was fbo.gov), Contract Data (Reports ONLY from fpds.gov), Wage Determinations (was wdol.gov), Federal Hierarchy (Departments and Subtiers), Assistance Listings (was cfo.gov), Entity Registration (Including Disaster Response Registry), Entity Reporting (SCR and Bio-Preferred Reporting), and Exclusions. The 'Entity Registration' link is circled in pink. The right section, titled 'Register Your Entity', encourages users to register to do business with the federal government and provides three buttons: 'Get Started', 'Renew Entity', and 'Check Registration Status'. Below this is a search bar with the text 'Already know what you want to find?' and a search icon. The bottom of the page features an 'Announcements' section with several news items dated May 25, a 'Have Questions about SAM.gov?' section with a video titled 'How to Search' and a 'Frequently Asked Questions' list, a 'Feedback' button, and a footer with links for 'Our Website', 'Our Partners', 'Policies', and 'Customer Service'.

The screenshot shows the SAM.GOV website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the SAM.GOV logo and a 'Sign In' link. Below the navigation bar, the main content area is titled 'Entity Registrations'. It includes a list of actions users can perform for free, such as registering to do business with the U.S. Government, updating or renewing registration, and checking status. A section titled 'What is an entity?' explains that registered entities are public information but require a sign-in to search. A green 'Sign In' button is highlighted with a pink circle. To the right, there is a 'Register Your Entity' section with buttons for 'Get Started', 'Renew Entity', and 'Check Registration Status'. Below these are expandable sections for 'Getting started searching entity registrations' and 'Using entity registrations advanced search'. Further down, there are three main categories: 'Download Data Files', 'Connect to Data Services', and 'External Resources', each with links to various resources. A 'Help' section is also present with links to 'Frequently Asked Questions', 'Glossary Terms', and 'Videos'.

The screenshot shows a consent dialog box from SAM.GOV. The dialog has a close button (X) in the top right corner. The SAM.GOV logo is centered at the top. The main text reads: 'You must accept the U.S. Government System terms to sign into this website'. Below this, it states: 'This is a U.S. General Services Administration Federal Government computer system that is "FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY." This System is subject to monitoring. Individuals found performing unauthorized activities are subject to disciplinary action including criminal prosecution.' At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Accept'. The 'Accept' button is highlighted with a pink circle.

services the entity provides, the entity size, optional Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), and disaster relief data.

Representations & Certifications

Documents an entity's representations and certifications related to their small business status, responses to commonly used Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) and Defense Federal Acquisition Regulation Supplement (DFARS) provisions/clauses, and Architect-Engine Responses (SF330 Part II).

Points of Contact

Mandatory for all registration types. The entity will be asked to provide contact information for any mandatory POC based on the information they provided during the registration process. Includes, but is not limited to, accounts receivable, electronic business, and government business.

Notes:

An entity within the SAM system includes prime contractors, organizations or individuals applying for assistance awards, those receiving loans, sole proprietors, corporations, partnerships, and any Federal government agencies desiring to do business with the government.

Entity Administrators and/or Entity Registration Representatives are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of an entity registration in SAM. An entity registration must be renewed every 365 days in order to remain active and will expire if it is not updated in a timely manner. An expired registration may affect the ability to do business with the Federal government.
