St. Kilian Women's Guild Holds Evening Of Recollection

During the Lenten season, the St. Kilian's Women's Guild held an Evening of Recollection that was coordinated this year by Chairladies Rosemary Trudden and Ida Ferrante. The evening began with Mass in St. Kilian Church celebrated by Bishop John C. Dunne. Mass was followed by a light supper, dessert and beverages in the Blue Room of the church basement.

After supper there was a presentation by Sister Mary Piil, director of Faith Formation for the Diocese of Rockville Centre. Sister Piil spoke to the membership about women's place in the spirituality of everyday Catholic life. She encouraged the members to follow the Spiritual Works of Mercy in their lives and, by their actions, to serve as an example by living their faith in a spiritual manner.

All members agreed it was a truly inspirational evening.
