Chesapeake: Public input sought on Navy's cleanup plan for site

Beginning Wednesday, the public can weigh in on the Navy's plan to remove soil and sediments from a landfill and small arms pit at the St. Julians Creek Annex in Chesapeake.

Plans for cleanup of the areas, referred to as Sites 3 and 6, will be posted at Chesapeake Central Library, 298 Cedar Road, during May.

For information, call 433-3443.
