SUBJECT: PROPOSED PROCESS FOR ASSESSING RISK FROM PETROLEUM
HYDORCARBONS IN SOIL AT UST SITE 109.

Dear Mr. Issinghoff:

This letter transmits the Navy's proposed process for assessing risk from petroleum hydrocarbons in soil at UST Site 109, located at the NASA Crows Landing Flight Facility, Crows Landing, California. This proposed process is a general framework that will be followed and includes some preliminary assumptions based on known site conditions.

The Navy requests that the agency review, and provide comments and/or concurrence on the proposed process and assumptions by April 30, 2004.

If you have any questions, please call Mr. Darren Newton, Remedial Project Manager at 619-532-0963.

Sincerely,

ca/ MICHAEL S. BLOOM
BRAC Environmental Coordinator
By direction of the Commander
