the commotion.

"You never see anything like this. I was safe, only by sheer luck," said Carol Weathers, who parked her car in a nearby lot because there was too much traffic near the fire.

Others weren't so lucky.

"I walked out here and the flames were in a burst," said Kathy Duncan, whose 1986 Acura was damaged. "They got it under control, and then it flared up again."

Clement said she at first thought police were chasing a shoplifter. As she shopped for vacuum bags downstairs, store employees and security officers ran up the escalator.

The smoke could be seen from the nearby San Diego (I-405) Freeway.

p.m. when he was hit by the truck, which was making a right turn, Sgt. Bob Clark said.

Sebastian Xochitiotzi Tililayatz, 42, of Santa Ana apparently lost sight of Austin, Clark said.

prints and follows no pattern in his choice of homes, Bean said.

Police have even checked pawn shops hoping the stolen goods would surface, Bean said, but nothing has appeared.
